

Films With Impact - Poly High School May 22-25, 2017

N = 132 evaluations (~140 participants)

How much did you learn about mental health that you didn't already know?

131 responses

Did this workshop improve your opinion of people with mental illness?

130 responses

Did you know about your school's counseling services before this event?

131 responses

Did you know about the community-based and online mental health resources before this event?

131 responses

After this event, are you more or less likely to seek support for your mental health?

131 responses

What type of mental health support do you think would be most useful to you?

129 responses

What was the main thing you learned? (Highlights - please see raw data for full list)

- Helping someone with mental illness is the right thing to do
- The day to day things that people with mental health disorders go through
- How to love yourself
- That anyone can have a mental illness
- You can still get help even if you don't think it's that bad
- Mental illnesses are often stigmatized in social media
- I like filmmaking :)
- Unseen side of mental illness
- It's really hard to get a good idea of what mental illness is actually like
- I didn't know all the different kind of mental health support groups there are and now I do
- You don't need to be in a classroom to learn about mental illness
- I learned that film is a very powerful effective tool for spreading awareness on mental illness
- Everyone deals with illness differently
- Mental illness should not be a taboo subject
- To be more sensitive and aware

How would you describe this event to a friend? (Highlights - please see raw data for full list)

- It was fun to make a movie
- Truly inspiring
- It was a very helpful event to benefit anyone and everyone
- A way to gain a deeper understanding of the impact of mental illness
- Informative and interactive portrayal of mental illness
- A fun project that makes you aware and you get to create
- A cool fun way to learn
- I would say it taught me a lot and it was fun
- A creative learning experience
- Inspiring
- It was a great opportunity and I thought it was a lot fun
- We made movies to try and break the stigmas on mental illness
- Expanding our knowledge of mental illnesses through film
- Using the art of film to bring awareness to mental health
- Powerful

How can we improve this event in the future?

- More time (68)
- It's good / perfect as is (12)
- Let us pick our groups (2)
- I believe explaining more about different kinds of mental issues (2)
- Statistics should be stated

- Not sure
- By kind of providing ideas or ways of transportation if one does want for parents to know
- Don't display the film if they're embarrassed about it
- More apps
- Stop bullying
- Better technology
- Do it earlier in the year
- This should be provided and done in other classes
- Impress upon the writers look up facts
- More work ethic
- Remind people to talk loud
- Maybe give the editors and DP some help with the tech so we actually know what we're doing
- Have someone tell experience about mental illness
- Let us be more creative
- Create websites
- Help people stay away from the stigma
- Be more open to help
- Don't let groups do the same topic
- Be more open about the subject
- To have people not feel uncomfortable when communicating with other people

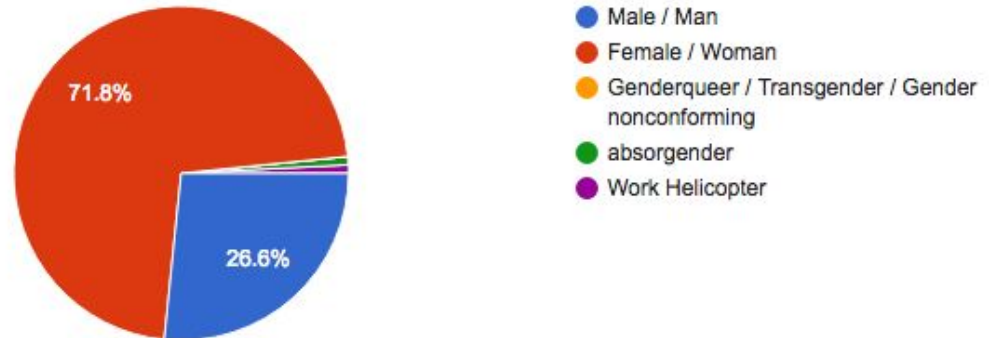

Year

128 responses

Sex/Gender

124 responses

Ethnicity

Pacific Islander	Native American / First Nations	Black / African / African American	Hispanic / Latinx	White / Caucasian	Middle Eastern	Do Not Identify	Multi-racial
1	1	3	47	38	1	1	30
1%	1%	2%	38%	31%	1%	1%	25%

Anything else we should know?

- Some people portrayed my mental illness incorrectly (ADHD)
- I'm dyslexic
- I've been planning to talk to someone in planned parenthood but i don't know how to get there without parents knowing
- Thank you :)
- It was fun
- This was fun :)
- As a person who suffers from an anxiety disorder and moderate depression, it's nice to see people who care
- You guys are cool
- You guys were great! and I loved this
- You guys are cool
- No, I really enjoyed making and watching the films.
- It was a fun a process
- This was pretty fun but stressful under time constraints
- Your staff did an amazing job teaching our class
- I think the project is beneficial and should be kept going
- Mindfulness
- Don't let groups do the same topic