

Movies for Mental Health University of Cincinnati

November 7, 2017

n=14 (~25 total attendees)

In your opinion, did this event create awareness of mental health issues?

13 responses

In your opinion, did this event reduce stigma related to mental illness?

13 responses

Did you know about your school's counseling services before this event?

13 responses

Did you know about Prop 63/ the community-based mental health resources before this event?

13 responses

After this event, are you more or less likely to seek support for your mental health?

13 responses

What type of mental health support do you think would be most useful to you?

12 responses

How did you hear about this event?

14 responses

What was your main takeaway?

- Mental illnesses have no one look.
- Art / creativity is a bridge
- Love each other.
- Insights
- Art makes an impact!
- Mental health is unique and important.
- Mental illness affects people in many different ways.
- Not alone. Not to be afraid to speak out.
- Mental health is part of your health.

How would you describe this event to a friend?

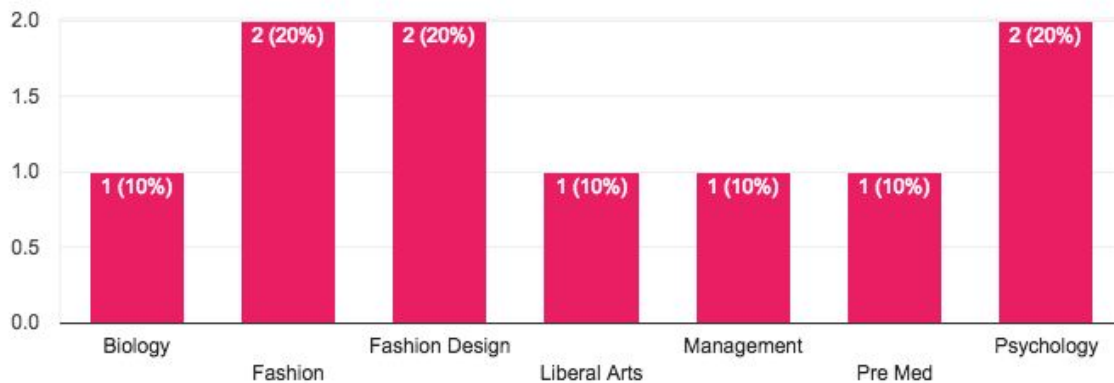

- Fun & Informative
- Loving and open space
- Chill
- Very important
- Informative
- Discussion in a comfortable and open environment.
- Incorporating mental health and art
- Inspiring.

How can we improve this event in the future?

- Better advertising
- More engaging
- More information about what the films are about and what food will be provided. :-)
- More advertisement! Would love to see more people!
- Not putting sex and gender together as if they're interchangeable (survey question)

Major?

10 responses

Year

11 responses

Sex/Gender

10 responses

- Male / Man
- Female / Woman
- Genderqueer / Transgender / Gender nonconforming

Ethnicity

Black / African American	White / Caucasian	Hispanic / Latinx	Multi-Racial
3	6	1	1
27%	55%	9%	9%